CEDAR IMPORTED FOR TUB MAKING

Manufacture of Soy and Sake Tubs Becoming Important Industry--Flau- rence Ward Looks Smart. Two Vessels Arrive.

There will be no need to pay a visit to the Japanese stores and beg, borrow or steal soy and sake tubs in the future because they are now being made here. The industry which was started some little time ago is now assuming large dimensions and the four-masted schooner Mary E. Foster which is discharging 2,000 lumber cargo at the Allen & Robinson wharf this morning started to get on shore a number of pieces of cedar imported especially for the manufacture of the tubs in which ferns are placed after an incidental filling with sake or soy.

The trade in tubs is quite a considerable one and the local Japanese think they can make good money in the business. If they succeed with it, it will mean that there will be another increase in the lumber industry to this port.

The number of vessels coming here with lumber cargoes as was pointed out in the Star recently, is increasing all the time and with the prospects ahead goes to show how necessary it is for more wharf accommodation.

FLAURENCE WARD SMART.
Trim and taut looking, very few people would recognize the schooner lying at the wharf today as the crippled Flauence Ward that hauled into this port some months ago after trying conclusions with a gale.

The story is told of one gentleman on the front who walked over to the wharf this morning to see what naval auxiliary schooner had come in during the night. When he saw that it was the Flauence Ward he had a good laugh on himself.

A good job has certainly been made of the little craft and when she sets her wings and waits out of the harbor at the latter part of this week she will be a pretty sight.

NO TRUCK AVAILABLE.
Kicks, real, good, life-sized kicks, were flying about the Railroad wharf this morning and all because the railroad company could not supply enough trucks to the second mate of the E. K. Wood.

The Wood has about eight carloads of lumber left on board and the second mate's job is to hurry this on to the dock. If he does not get it off quickly then the first mate will jump on him, following loud words from the "Old Man."

At present the second mate's ideas as to the efficiency of the local railroad would be worth printing. The good ideas could be easily engraved on a pin head in upper case caps.

pie cargos for the Libby, McNeil & Libby pineapple factory on the windward side of the island.

The Matsun Navigation company will call bids today for repairing the damaged stern of the R. P. Rithet. She was in collision with the Lorraine.

The inter-island steamer W. G. Hall cleared for Kauai ports yesterday afternoon.

The Nossu left for Kauai yesterday evening with seventeen mules for the Kilauea plantation in addition to her regular cargo of gasoline and powder.

Carrying a full load of lumber the steamer Niihau left for Kauai yesterday afternoon. Most of her cargo will be landed at Port Allen.

The steamer Iwalewa leaves this evening for Hawaii ports. In addition to her general cargo she takes twelve mules for Mahukona.

The steamer Mauna Kea arrived this morning from Hilo, bringing the returning passengers who left on the weekend volcano trip.

The Matsun steamer Honolulu is due tomorrow morning from San Francisco.

The Canadian-Australian steamer Makura should reach port tomorrow from Vancouver en route to Sydney.

Eight of the Spanish immigrants who arrived last year in the steamer Wilhelmina are booked in the Wilhelmina for the Coast tomorrow.

They have been working on plantations near Hilo but do not like Hawaii. They are bound for California and want to make the fruit belt.

The Alice Cooke is at the Bishop wharf discharging her lumber cargo.

The R. P. Rithet, which went to the Railroad wharf to discharge shoals, has finished and hauled over to the Hackfeld wharf where she will discharge about 300 tons of bone meal.

This will complete the vessel and she will take on a sugar cargo for San Francisco.

The E. K. Wood is still discharging her lumber cargo at the Railroad wharf. She has about eight car loads left to put off.

The Matsun steamer Wilhelmmina hauled away from the Railroad wharf this morning and has gone to the Hackfeld wharf to leave for the coast tomorrow morning.

The Mary E. Foster is discharging her lumber cargo at the Allen & Robinson wharf.

The S. C. Allen which is discharging her lumber cargo at the old Fort street wharf expects to finish and get away about Saturday.

The Flauence Ward is lying at the Naval wharf waiting for a chance to come to the Alakea dock. She will haul over tomorrow morning and take on her stores.

The patent iron folding doors for the new Richard streets wharf are expected to arrive on July 11.

The Canadian-Australian steamer Makura will be off port at daylight tomorrow. She has plenty of passenger accommodation and freight space.

The Zealandia of the Canadian-Australian line which arrived from Sydney today brings 45 passengers for Honolulu. She has twelve who leave by the Wilhelmmina tomorrow.
